

Royalty-Free Full License Agreement

A. License Evan Scott Pierce Productions LLC grants you a perpetual, worldwide right to incorporate the Stock Files you obtain from us into any work you create within the following guidelines.

This License is written for and indemnifies you, the individual or entity, who purchased stock footage on evanscottpierce.com for items purchased.

For any Stock Files you obtain from us, you may incorporate them into advertisements, film or theatre productions (provided the budget does not exceed $2,000,000), and in point of sale locations. Advertisements include but are not limited to television (broadcast, cable, or in an "on-demand" context), radio, Out of Home (e.g., digital billboard), or in theaters. Point of sale locations include but are not limited to shopping malls, point of sale systems, in-store displays, showroom videos, trade shows, industrial fairs and exhibitions.

Once you incorporate a Stock File into your project, you can share your finished project freely, but you may not share the underlying individual Stock File as a standalone file with anyone who does not also have a license. (That said, if you are working on a project and need to show someone else, such as a client, one of our files for the sole purpose of getting their input on whether or not to incorporate the file into your project, that is perfectly fine. But they cannot use the stock file themselves for any other purpose unless they obtain their own license.) You also agree to use your best efforts to avoid letting the Stock File be accessible to others as a standalone file, but since that's not always possible, your inability to prevent copying will not be considered a breach of this License.

This License covers all Stock Files obtained from our platform. Keep in mind that this License is limited in certain ways, as explained below, and it is neither exclusive to you nor transferable to others.

B. Guarantee. We promise that if you use our Stock Files as described in this License, your use will not infringe on the rights (such as copyrights) of a third party.

Note that trademarks, logos, or copyrights depicted within our Stock Files are not covered by this guarantee. For example, if one of our videos depicts someone holding a brand-name beverage, the beverage label may be protected by copyright and trademark law and should be used at your own risk. (We wouldn't want you to think that this License lets you reprint Coca-Cola cans.)

C. Basic Limitations.

1. You cannot sell, license, or redistribute our Stock Files, nor can you build your own stock media site with our files. You cannot create a trademark or logo based on our Stock Files, since that could block other customers from using the Stock Files. Finally, you cannot use Stock Files to harm minors, to encourage violence, or for an unlawful purpose, such as defamation.
2. For Stock Files with identifiable people or property, we will clearly mark whether the Stock File is "model released," or "property released," or both on the clip description pages. We guarantee that such content will not infringe on the rights of an individual (for model-released content) or property (for property-released content). If content depicts identifiable people or property and does not have the appropriate release, you may still use the content, but you yourself must satisfy that all necessary releases are provided for your intended use. For example, content used for "editorial" purposes generally does not require a release. Also, for model-released Stock Files, you must not depict the models in a way that a reasonable person would find offensive. Just to be clear, the issue is whether your depiction of the models is offensive, not whether your project as a whole may be offensive. For example, you could use Stock Files with models in a documentary about a rare and embarrassing medical condition, but you should not depict the models in a way that suggests they personally carry the condition, unless our clip already depicts them that way.
3. This License allows you to use our audio clips in YouTube videos, but since we are not associated with YouTube or similar platforms, we cannot prevent other people from incorrectly claiming that your video violates a copyright.

If any of these limitations are too stringent for your business needs, or you just really like getting attorneys involved, we can create a custom license structure that works for your business and budget. You can contact us at evan@evanscottpierce.com to learn more.

E. Other Legal Provisions.

1. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of New Mexico, excluding its body of law relating to conflicts of law and copyright law. If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid, the other provisions will not be affected. You must be of legal age to enter this Agreement.
